

TREY GRAVENSTEIN
SALES AND LEASING ASSOCIATE

COMPANY EXPERIENCE

Trey joined First Capital Property Group as a sales and leasing associate in 2015. His focus is on tenant and landlord representation with experience in retail, office, and industrial transactions. Trey is very keen in extrapolating market data and analytics to uncover the highest and best use for a specific property and/or end user for optimal success. Trey works side by side with owners to develop strategies to add value in asset management, acquisition / disposition, and leasing.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Trey's prior experience was with high level portfolio fund serving as the Vice President of Sales. The Luxemburg based hedge fund is a leader in customer acquisitions with footprints both onshore and offshore. There Trey played an important role in bringing a customer centric approach to deliver unparalleled value proposition to clients, partnering with them at every step which lead to an accelerated business growth. To this day, the framework Trey implemented has continued to provide value to the company in their marketing and client acquisition.

PERSONAL LIFE & INVOLVEMENT

Trey has been married since 2006 to his wonderful wife, Ashley. Together they have two children, Caden and Delaney. Aside from his professional activities, Trey is a member of First Baptist Church of Orlando. Trey is also an active member of the West Orange Chamber of Commerce.
