

JACKIE SOLANO
STAFF ACCOUNTANT

COMPANY EXPERIENCE

Jackie joined the FCPG accounting team in April 2024 and quickly established herself as a key member of the department. She manages receipts and collections for corporate, commercial, and association accounts, while ensuring the accuracy of tenant rental histories. Jackie also reconciles accounts and resolves discrepancies. In addition, she handles cash management, communicates with customers, and provides vital support to the Controller.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Jackie brings over a decade of accounting experience and holds certification as an Accredited Receivables Specialist. She began her career in residential property management in New York City, later transitioning to work in a Senior Living Community before returning to her property management roots. Beyond her professional role, Jackie is actively involved in Church of God Restoration, where she serves as the bookkeeper, applying her accounting expertise to support the community.
